

Halloween description

I went through the gates of the old, abandoned house to see what I could find. I turned around and walked into the spiral tower to hear rusty chains clanging and fresh bloody footsteps in the center leading to the top of the dark, gloomy crumbly tower. I made my way up my heart pounding with fear wondering what I would see. The darkness seemed to be getting darker. The noises getting louder. but when I get to the top I see nothing but an old rusty brown door. I opened the door to see old rusty chains hanging from the roof. Suddenly I hear cackling and the door slams behind me....

...I new I was going to die hear because there was no cracks or anything. And I was trapped there for the rest of my life.
